

OUTLANDER: BLOOD OF MY BLOOD TRAINING PROGRAMME NOW OPEN FOR APPLICATIONS!

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join one of Scotland's biggest television productions.

Outlander: Blood of My Blood is offering the opportunity to gain experience working as a freelancer through a structured training programme.

The “Outlander” television series has become a worldwide success with audiences, spanning the genres of history, science fiction, romance, and adventure in one amazing tale. An eighth and final season of its popular time-traveling fantasy drama, “Outlander,” will be filmed in 2024 as will the highly anticipated prequel series “Outlander: Blood of My Blood.”

“Outlander: Blood of My Blood” will be a 10 episode season and centre on the lives and relationship of Jamie Fraser’s parents, Brian Fraser and Ellen MacKenzie.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The Outlander: Blood of My Blood Training Programme supports diversity and encourages applications from across all sections of the community. No formal qualifications are required. However, in order to be eligible to be considered for a traineeship, applicants must:

- Be normally resident in Scotland (the production base is Cumbernauld)
- Be eligible to work in the UK
- Be over 18 years old
- Have a basic understanding of the film and television industry, preferably with relevant work experience
- Have no more than 6 months paid experience within the department they are applying to
- Preferably have a full clean driving licence (this is essential for some roles; please review the criteria for each role carefully)
